Mr Huarte -

We've covered this before. As you know, Ivan refuses to enter into mediation to resolve problems and he has refused written communication which is why you agreed to be the liaison for management. There is ample evidence that I have contacted Highland View about the problems with the water and all else - and there has been nothing stopping someone in the office from messaging me with the information I requested. Do you really think I'm the one who needs to communicate better? Feel free to forward my messages, as always, and please direct your employees to communicate with me via email if you no longer wish to answer for them.

You may be aware there is more at stake here than just a water bill and I am still seeking justice. I will likely have to take legal action to get answers from such a totalitarian extremist, but there is family and property involved and I will not just walk away. If you wish to isolate yourself from such liabilities, you should fire these people and get a contract with someone ethical.

In 3 days I will have been sober for 10 years - and your manager Ivan has been the number one adversary to my success. I believe these people killed both of my dogs, too, and there is more than enough suspicion of identity theft and fraud. You have no business admonishing me for anything. I have seen no amount of kindness or compassion, no congratulations, no condolences, and no help when I needed it, while you're barely available. This may just be money to you, but this is my life and your manager is criminally insane.

I never did anything to deserve the kind of deprivation and targeting I've suffered at the hands of Jehovah's Witnesses - you may choose to be part of their group, but I do not and I should not have to suffer from religious persecution, invasions of privacy, or obstacles to justice, including the freedom of information. I think their organization is hiding a child who's mine, and I know they've meddled with my mother and my aunt, as well as the woman of my dreams. Ivan loves to give away anything I want to other people, and he has tried multiple times to get me to give up my home. Do you know about all this? Are you aware he's tried to get me to give up my worldly possessions and aids and abets those who have stolen from me?

I am in the process of commanding respect from those who believe respect must be earned... from them. Your manager is just a servant, the guy who picks up the trash, collects the rent, and is supposed to provide maintenance and security. He is not an authority I must call father and be obedient to, matter how holy he thinks he is. Things like the barbed wire and the whole water fiasco are really just annoyances of irrationality. There are more important things on the table that are worth fighting for, and I will not give up.

Communication is key.

Please keep me informed.

Indigo,

Speak with Ivan and Kim regarding the water bills. They have all the latest information from the water meter company. Our water meter company had some technical issues.

Sincerely,

Michael Huarte

I presume you only want the utility fee paid now since I have not received an answer back and that you are working on fixing the problem for the future, so I have only included the $23.74 with the rent this month as all else is pending...

I have just received my water bill and it shows 0 gallons usage with a beginning and previous reading of 100, no charge except for the excessive utility fee of $23.74... last month's current reading was 410900, which I assume should be this month's previous reading, though it was an identical usage and charge from the month before. What exactly is the utility fee for? I hope your manager isn't planning on waiting until the end of the year before billing me for everything, and I hope he doesn't expect me to ask him respectfully for my water bill each and every month. The last time I complained, I was greeted with a backed up toilet which he has bragged about doing to tenants before by running air backwards through the cleanout trap of the sewer. Please either include the water with the rent, or fix whatever is wrong with the system. Better communication would also be appreciated. The best way to contact me is at this email address which has been valid for many, many years.
