Mr. Huarte,
As a courteous reminder, I am writing to inform you that you are still not in compliance with the law as I clearly stated in my letter dated January 1st, along with several other letters, and I have not received the $2,191.88 you owe me. Unless you have already filed with Benton County and settled with me, tomorrow I will file for a default judgement that includes an additional $1,000 for my time and trouble. I've said it before - good business requires good communication - and I've done my part. For the sake of organization, this is regarding Small Claims case 24SC00677 since it appears there may be several other cases this year. Remember, 2024 is the year of Respect in my personal life, and it's only just begun. The law requires everything I have asked - everything - and I think you will find it's cheaper in the long run to be in compliance with the law, even if you have a manager who believes his will IS law. You can watch as I command the respect I'm owed, and it's going to cost you. The additional amounts and the cost of upgrading the infrastructure, replacing the pipes, fences, the bridge, etc - that's the cost of doing business when proper maintenance and good communication are not the policy. Any reply you may have is welcome, but please don't waste my time with lies. Your level of denial about what's happening on your property is part of the problem. Many laws are broken here, many obligations unfulfilled, and many of us residents have been treated with the utmost of disrespect by management. Everything I am claiming and everything I am asking for is a matter of public record, or it should be. So, thank you in advance for reimbursing me the money I've been fraudulently charged, even if you decide to ignore me and pay extra. I look forward to your checks. And please remember, this is not just a column in my ledger. This is my home. I will be treated with respect here.
